Flexible Yield Update with Sam Lau from DoubleLine

With North American interest rates increasing, the fixed income sector has been a difficult space to navigate. Designed to deliver Government Bond Like Volatility with Corporate Bond Like Yield, the Renaissance Flexible Yield Fund has stood out amongst its peers in an unfavorable fixed income environment. In products where the tactical component is going to drive the majority of performance, the critical aspect is the skill and decision making ability of the PM. Recognized with Institutional Investor's "U.S. Fixed Income – Mortgage Backed Securities" award in 2013 and 2014, DoubleLine is recognized as the expert in bonds and other debt-related investments.

Renaissance Investments cordially invites you to attend an exclusive branch presentation featuring DoubleLine. With each Portfolio Manager averaging 23 years industry experience, DoubleLine manages just over $120 billion and is the sub-advisor to the Renaissance Flexible Yield Fund since 2016.
